xxxxxxxxxxx,

The Committee has requested several times that you meet with them for the purpose of discussing your grievances with the church and the allegations against you (as stipulated in their letter to you dated 11/25/08), and working towards reconciliation . They understand that you question their authority to request such a meeting. To address your concern they invited you to come to the church to review the bylaws for yourself, just as all members are welcomed to do. Again, you refused. Most recently they have requested that you meet to discuss the next step in the prescribed process of discipline, and once again you have refused. There does not seem to be a genuine willingness on your part to resolve the matters of concern. Nevertheless, if you would like to attend the Deacons meeting scheduled for Monday (2/23/09), you are invited to do so for the purpose of giving answer to the charges against you. If you plan to attend, please let me know by 4:00 PM Thursday (2/19/2009).

Thank You!
